(Question:- 1)

Hadees-e-Jibreel:

This is a Hadees of very great importance because of its comprehensive explanation of every aspect of the religion.

After having explained the three levels of Islam, Iman and Ihsan, The prophet (S.A.W) referred to them all together as a single religion, concluding the Hadees by saying;

"That was Gabriel who came to teach you your religion."

According to Hadees e jibraeil:-

Islam

is that you witness that there is no God but Allah and Muhammad (SAW) is the messenger of Allah, and you establish the prayer and you give the Zakat and you fast Ramadan, and you perform the Hajj to the House if you are able.

IMAN:-

In this Hadees, the prophet (SAW) defined Iman (Faith) as inner peace and belief, saying;

To believe in Allah, His Angels, His books, His prophets, the resurrection after death and to believe in good and bad of Qadar.

ISLAM:-

The prophet (SAW) explained Islam as the actions also performed by different parts of the body i.e. speech actions.

The first of these actions is that of the tongue. To profess that there is no God but Allah Almighty and Muhammad (SAW) is the messenger (last).

Almighty Islam is divided in following categories:-

The actions of the body (prayer & fasting)

Financial deeds (Paying Zakah)

What entails the combination thereof (performing Hajj for those who are far from Mecca).

Difference b/w Iman & Islam:-

The difference between Iman and Islam is that Iman is the belief, confession and knowledge of the Heart, however Islam is the submission of the slave to Allah as well as his humanity and surrender to him.

THAWR:-

Thawr (day of trial) is a special Islamic Term defined in this Hadith in which Prophet (SAW) states THAWR is to worship ALLAH as though you see him and if you cannot see him, then

Indeed he sees you. Then meanin "To do beautiful thing is one of the three dimensions of Islamic Religion.

This happened to the end of the prophetic mission and its purpose to summarize some fundamental teachings of Islam for the education for all of us.

History &
Introduction:-

1440 years ago,
was the biggest turning point in the lives of human beings all over the world. It is known that such things are said a lot and most often for incidents that are quite irrelevant.

However the mission of Prophet (SAW) was a turning point in history. It was the start of period when he would go from being the oppressed

Non of Makkah, to the one who relented as a Beneficent ruler.

Some of the following lessons from the life of Prophet (SAW) are as:-

Allah is not in need of us:-

Allah's part of the beginning of the verse that even if the believers do not aid the Prophet in circumstances when it is not really difficult, then that is not an issue. Allah will aid His Prophet (SA) and His religion in ways that no one can imagine. The prophet (SAW) didn't need an army to protect him, he only needed
Allah Almighty.

Allah's faith is not in need of us. We are in need of him and He will protect his faith and legacy of His Prophet.

Touring Allah in times of difficulty
brings ease:-

Abu Bakr and the Prophet (SAW) were stuck in the cave and did not have a way out. The Quraish were nearby and searching for them. As they came close Abu Bakr (RA) whispered to the prophet (SAW) about his anxiety.

Then the prophet (SAW)

replied;

"Don't grieve, Allah is with us."

The prophet did not know exactly what would happen but he knew that as they were on the path of Allah, He would suffice and He did.

Obey's Allah's orders even if it doesn't make sense.

The messenger life changed dramatically since he became a prophet. And despite all of this, he kept being the messenger. He never gave up or let despite all the persecution and even having to be driven out of his home and yet he kept going.

Honesty in conducting Trade:

The prophet (SAW) was extremely honest and trustworthy in his day-to-day life.

This was the zone of quality in the era he lived. When merchants and vendors used to swindle and deceive the consumers for pretty profit.

With difficulty come ease:-

The people (SAW) had suffered for so long. It was almost 13 years of torture, and it was only now that he was about to be finally coming out of the pain. The Makkah had gave him. But little he did know that the Allah Almighty had planned so much for him.

All that pain was one thing but what was coming better and with the difficulty he had faced, now he was about to open to a new card.

(Question:- 3)

Islamic Culture

Introduction:-

There are over a billion muslims throughout the world and though they speak hundreds of different languages and live in dozens of different countries. They will share a common muslim culture. This culture is embedded in certain common beliefs that there is no God but Allah and Muhammad is his messenger.

Muslim customs and traditions include Islamic clothing, food, wedding traditions, and other aspects of Islamic life. The muslims have adopted in their respective countries.

History of Islamic Culture:-

Secular muslim literature developed in the Umayyad empire. It was taken by the arabs to distant lands and became part of a proper culture. In due course time Persian became one of the most languages of the civilization.

Characteristics:-

The Quran is considered to be the source of many aspects of Islamic culture. Certain acts or rituals that

Muslim do almost subconsciously one act by encouraged or allowed by Allah or mandated in Qur'an.

Islamic Civilization

Some of those who have written about the history of civilization refine this as:-

"A social system which helps man to increase his intellectual output."

Civilization consists of four main elements;
economical resources.
Political Systems
moral Traditions
Science and Arts.

With the passage of time,
and with increased conflict in both eastern and western civilizations, this pro-decline in Islam from stronger and Islamic culture did not penetrate
the way in the same way that German culture did.

Characteristics:-

- 1- It is a civilization based on Islamic faith, imbued with its values and principles. It is also partly a man-made civilization built on slowly religious background of faith.
- 2- Islamic Civilization is Prescribed on the idea that Man has precedence over the rest of Allah's creation.
- 3- It's being a generous civilization which drew the human civilization and cultures experienced by the peoples of ancient world. It's culture benefited humanity at large regardless of race, color and even religion.
